

Qur'Anic Zakat and Government Taxes: A Pathbreaking Examination by Firas Al Moneer

Delving into the Nuances of Islamic Finance and Taxation

In the realm of Islamic finance and economics, the intricate relationship between Qur'anic Zakat and government taxes has been a subject of profound scholarly inquiry. Firas Al Moneer's seminal work, "Qur'Anic Zakat and Government Taxes," presents a comprehensive examination of this complex topic, offering a lucid analysis that sheds new light on the subject.

The Essence of Zakat: A Pillar of Islamic Society

Zakat, one of the five pillars of Islam, stands as a fundamental obligation for every financially capable Muslim. It is a form of alms-giving, a mandatory charitable contribution that purifies wealth and fosters social solidarity. Al Moneer delves into the Qur'anic injunctions regarding Zakat, meticulously examining its objectives, conditions, and distribution mechanisms.
