

The Islam Eman and the Temporary Eman: A Comprehensive Guide to the Beliefs and Practices of Islam

Islam is a monotheistic religion that was founded by the Prophet Muhammad in the 7th century CE. Muslims believe that there is only one God, Allah, and that Muhammad is his last prophet. Islam is based on the Quran, which Muslims believe is the word of God revealed to Muhammad.

The Islam Eman is the belief in the oneness of God, the prophethood of Muhammad, and the Day of Judgment. The Temporary Eman is the belief in the temporary nature of this world and the importance of preparing for the afterlife.

The five pillars of Islam are the five basic practices that all Muslims must follow. They are:

1. The Shahada: The declaration of faith, which states that there is no god but Allah and that Muhammad is his prophet.
2. The Salat: The five daily prayers.
3. The Zakat: The giving of alms to the poor.
4. The Sawm: The fasting during the month of Ramadan.
5. The Hajj: The pilgrimage to Mecca.

The six articles of faith are the six beliefs that all Muslims must hold. They are:

1. Belief in God
2. Belief in angels
3. Belief in the books of God
4. Belief in the prophets of God
5. Belief in the Day of Judgment
6. Belief in predestination

The Islamic way of life is based on the teachings of the Quran and the Sunnah, which is the collection of sayings and actions of the Prophet Muhammad. Muslims believe that the Islamic way of life is the best way to live, and that it will lead to happiness and success in both this world and the next.

The Islam Eman and the Temporary Eman is a comprehensive guide to the beliefs and practices of Islam. It covers a wide range of topics, including the five pillars of Islam, the six articles of faith, and the Islamic way of life. The book is written in a clear and concise style, and it is suitable for both Muslims and non-Muslims who want to learn more about Islam.
